Expenses

We cover all speaker travel and accommodation expenses if requested. We also cover costs of materials for your session. We cannot accept requests for additional financial support after you have agreed that amount.

Please let us know on your session proposal whether you need any financial support to take part in the conference and, if possible, what you need e.g. how many nights accommodation, some indication of where you would be travelling to the event from, whether you want any additional fees.

Part of the decision on whether to accept a session or not involves considering its financial costs. If we do accept your session we will make you a financial offer based on our understanding of what it would take to meet your requests. We can also talk to you about how you could travel and where you could stay.

Unfortunately we can't reimburse expenses that we haven't agreed to pay in advance of the event.

Session reviews

After the Call for Speakers has closed, all submissions are anonymised and sent to our Programme Panel for their independent review.

The review process usually takes between 2 and 3 weeks, depending on the volume of submissions. All candidates will be contacted to confirm whether they have been successful or not within the review period.

Programming

Inclusion of a session in the conference programme will be at the sole discretion of the conference organisers. By agreeing to have your session included in the programme you agree to participate in the conference and in all pre-conference quality control activities as deemed necessary by the conference organisers.

The organisers reserve the right to remove a session from the programme at any time. Speakers will no longer be eligible for free entry to the conference and so will have to pay the current participant rate if they wish to participate in the conference.

The organisers will not be responsible for payment of any kind on behalf of the speaker in this event.

Data policy

We need to hold information you provide on computer databases for administrative purposes. Summary information, which could include contact data, will be published for all session leaders.

Information about participants will be made available to organisations involved in administering, organising or supporting the event and this may include organisations outside the EC.

General

The organisers are not responsible for the views or opinions expressed by speakers, sponsors or other participants.

Code of Conduct

As such we expect everyone will behave accordingly but have created a code of conduct to ensure everyone in attendance can see easily and openly that we will not tolerate any behaviour that falls below an acceptable level.

Unacceptable behaviour includes intimidating, harassing, abusive, discriminatory, derogatory or demeaning conduct by any participant at our events or online communities including Twitter and other online media.

Harassment includes offensive verbal comments related to gender, age, sexual orientation, race religion, disability, sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact and unwelcome sexual attention.

If a participant engages in behaviour that violates this code of conduct, the event organisers will take the appropriate action, including warning or expulsion from the conference with no refund.

If participants have any concerns, inform a member of Software Acumen staff who will offer support in contacting the appropriate security and ensure required assistance is given.
